Airlanka having it rough on the ground

Airlanka was experiencing some rough times this weekend - on the ground.

The national carrier had to cancel its Singapore flight on Friday, when the scheduled Tri-Star aircraft was diagnosed with a technical problem.

Following the aircraft being grounded for repairs, passengers on UL-547 enroute to Frankfurt on Sunday were affected.

Airlanka, however, consolidated this one with its Paris flight, UL-563, which was diverted to Frankfurt to
